Long story short:

Mom had 9 kids (4 boys and 5 girls) I'm the only girl who didn't turn to drugs and the welfare system. I make 50k a year (good money at the moment here in Arizona for non-college grad).

Tho gotta admit I'm more fucked up than I put on cuz I'm 33 y/o without my own family and the fact that my sisters get all their shit for free because of welfare does make me wonder why the fuck I didn't go that route sometimes. Then I look in the mirror and it all makes sense 😞. Fucking self esteem issues.

Might I introduce you to Michael Barry? That mother fucker is passionate, a patriot and a god damn hero for my sanity. He is Houston based and you can find him and his show all posted on the i heart radio app. 740AM radio is all i listen to since it has a M-F set schedule of Michael Barry 7am-11am, Rush 11am-2pm (fastest 3 hours in radio) Sean Hannity 2pm-5pm, Michael Barry 5pm-8pm. Then I believe Mark Levine and then coast to coast with George Noory.

▼ Bruh!!! Michael Berry was quite the anti trump guy during the campaign and is best buds with Ted Cruz. He wanted Cruz to win so so bad.

But as things would have our GEOTUS would prevail and feelings would be hurt. Berry never wanted Trump to fail in the beginning but was butt hurt so badly and as Trump kept doing exactly what he campaigned on, Berry very quickly jumped on to the Trump train and is an ardent supporter, to the point that I believe if he didn't have three adopted children on different races and his Indian wife, I believe he would go die fighting for Trump if that's what it would take. Seriously one badass radio host.

He is a based white man that loves humanity. It's hard to tell sometimes because his show literally borders on edgy racism to bad southern humor, but he ain't no fucking racist.

▼ Yeah, you're right. They're not really zombie cars. They were driven to death. Of course death probably came around 400,000 + miles. The ironic thing about BMW's and Mercedes is that those are some of the biggest pieces of shit on the road, but for some reason people love those cars. Look at any Consumer Reports review on Mercedes and BMW. It's pretty much black circles all day. Why the fuck am I talking about cars? Thread derailed.

Picturing a car full of Pepe frogs descending upon D.C. to swarm the commies on January 6th instantly made me think of this lol:

Exodus 8:1-4

1 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the Lord says: "Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

2 But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I am going to strike your entire territory with frogs.

3 The Nile will swarm with frogs, which will come up and go into your house, and into your bedroom and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens and kneadir bowls.

4 So the frogs will come up on you, your people, and on all your servants."""

▼ Oh I'm 100% on board with you on that.

I currently drive a 10th gen Civic Sport with a 6MT (that I'm running a tune on) and had a K-swapped '01.

I love this thing but it lacks that feel of the old ones. I'm looking to scoop up an old hatch to drop a seriously built K20A2 from 4P in - since I agree that those older model years had more of a special feel to them. I've owned everything from performance American muscle to euro sports cars (Porsche) and while I loved my Porsche, when it came to driving experience - nothing beat the feel of a built Civic. It just felt so... raw. Those things were like a lego set and the aftermarket parts were widely available. Plus, if a solution didn't exist, someone was more than willing to figure out how to pull it off.

Good looks on the Integra - my wife has been looking to build a GSR or Type-R. Absolutely loves those cars.
